Hospital in Europe Gets a Unique Space-Saving Installation

Not only does ICWUSA.com, Inc., strive to find workspace mounting solutions for companies in the United States, but we work with international hospitals and companies as well.

In this instance, a German University Hospital was looking to save space in a crowded room. Although it's not common to see an Elite 5220 attached to a laptop tray, the solution provided the university hospital exactly what it was looking for.
